The Thomas Crane Public Library issues free library cards in order to maintain an accurate record of library materials that are checked out, and to gather library usage data so it can evaluate and improve collections and services. BORROWING MATERIALS

Policy Statement

The Thomas Crane Public Library has established a borrowing policy to provide fair and equitable services for our patrons. The primary purpose of this policy is to outline the rules and regulations associated with borrowing library materials. The Library also adheres to all OCLN policies related to borrowing materials.

Regulations

General

1. Patrons must present a valid permanent OCLN library card to borrow physical materials.
2. Patrons who owe $15.00 or more will not be allowed to borrow materials.
3. The Library reserves the right to limit the number of items borrowed on a specific subject, by a single author, or in a specific format.
4. Patrons may have up to 100 items checked out on their account at one time. Patrons will not be allowed to check out materials if they are currently at or above 100 items.

Borrowing Items from Other Libraries

5. The Thomas Crane Public Library is a member of the Old Colony Library Network (OCLN), which is made up of public and academic libraries that share materials and resources.
6. Patrons may request that materials owned by other OCLN member libraries be sent to the Thomas Crane Public Library for borrowing, when available.
7. Patrons may also request items from outside the Old Colony Library Network for borrowing at the Thomas Crane Library. Requests for such items may be made using the online

Commonwealth Catalog or by submitting an interlibrary loan request (see also Thomas Crane Public Library Interlibrary Loan Policy).

Returning Items

8. Most library materials may be returned to any OCLN Library, with the following exceptions:
 - Interlibrary Loan (ILL) and Commonwealth Catalog materials must be returned to the library they were borrowed from (if checked out at a Quincy library, they must be returned to Quincy).
 - Museum passes must be returned to the Borrower Services Desk at the Main Library.
9. Materials borrowed directly from non-OCLN Massachusetts libraries may be returned to the Thomas Crane Public Library. These materials will be sent to the owning library and will not be checked back in (and taken off the patron's library account) until received by the owning library.
10. Each Quincy library location has an outside return that is open at all times. To avoid damage, audio/visual and media formats like CDs and DVDs should either be returned to an inside circulation desk or in a designated media-only outside return. Patrons are responsible for damage or theft of any items left outside a return.

Renewals

Definition

A renewal extends the borrowing period of library material for another loan period of the same duration. A renewal acts as borrowing the same item for a second, third, etc. time.

11. With the exception of items on reserve/hold for other patrons, most Quincy-owned materials will be automatically renewed three times and most items from other OCLN libraries will be automatically renewed twice. You will receive an email notice or text message when an item is automatically renewed.
12. Patrons may choose to opt out of automatic renewals and instead manually renew items online, by phone, or in person with a valid OCLN library card number.
13. The number of renewals available on non-Quincy items is determined by the local policies of the owning library.
14. Items borrowed from non-OCLN libraries include Commonwealth Catalog materials and Interlibrary Loan materials. Commonwealth Catalog materials may not be renewed. Interlibrary Loan materials may be renewed only with the permission of the owning library.

Holds/Reserves

Definition

Placing a hold means requesting an item to be kept for a patron when it becomes available in the library.

15. If an item is not available in Quincy a patron may receive an item from another OCLN library. If there are no available copies of an item, a patron will be entered into a waiting queue for that item based on when they placed their hold.
16. A valid OCLN library card is required to place a hold. Holds can be placed in the following ways:
 - In person, at a library public service desk
 - By telephone

- In the library, using the OCLN catalog
 - Online, using the OCLN catalog
17. Hold items are available for patrons at or near a public service desk. Patrons may borrow available hold items using a valid OCLN library card.
 18. Holds may not be available on the day they are placed. Patrons will receive notification when the item is available for pickup.
 19. The library sends email and/or text notification when hold materials become available. If a patron does not have an email or phone number attached to their library account, they will be notified by mail.
 20. Available hold items will be held for seven days.
 21. Materials in all formats may be requested from other OCLN libraries for pickup in Quincy, but restrictions may apply.

Loan Periods

Definition

A loan period is the length of time a patron may borrow an item.

22. All loan periods, fines and charges listed below apply to Quincy-owned material only, except as otherwise noted. Materials owned by other Old Colony Library Network (OCLN) libraries may have varying loan periods and charges based on the library that owns the item.
23. Loan Periods for Quincy Items:

ITEM TYPE	LOAN PERIOD
Most Adult Books and Audiobooks Young Adult Books and Audiobooks Commonwealth Catalog Materials	28 days (4 weeks)
New Adult Fiction Adult DVDs, CDs, & Electronic Resources Magazines Interlibrary Loan (ILL) Materials All Children’s Materials	14 days (2 weeks)
Things (equipment, tools, etc.)	7 days (1 week)
Museum Passes	1 day

24. Loan periods for non-Quincy items vary according to the local policies of the owning library.

Library Charges

Definitions

Overdue materials are items that have not been returned to the library by the end of an item’s loan period, also known as the item’s due date.

Fines are the monetary charge for overdue materials. Fines accrue for each day an item is overdue. Fines do not accrue on days that the library is closed.

General

25. All charges paid in person must be paid in cash or check; online payments can be made with a credit card.

26. Patrons assume certain responsibilities when borrowing library materials. It is the responsibility of the borrower to renew materials, return materials by the due date (the end of the loan period), or pay any accrued fines for overdue materials.

27. No overdue fines are charged for Quincy items except for the following:

ITEM	OVERDUE FINE	MAXIMUM FINE PER ITEM
Museum Passes	$20.00 per day	$20.00

28. The overdue fees for non-Quincy items vary according to the local policy of the owning library.

Lost Materials

Definitions

A lost item is library material that is not returned to the library. Items not returned within 45 days of the due date are considered lost. Items reported as lost, misplaced, or missing by a patron are also considered lost.

29. Patrons assume certain responsibilities when borrowing library materials. It is the responsibility of the borrower to return materials or be subject to a replacement fee for the item.

30. The replacement cost of lost Quincy items is determined by the retail price of the item. Patrons paying for a lost item may be required to pay this full amount.

31. Any accrued overdue fines for a lost item will be cancelled upon payment for replacement.

32. Patrons will be issued a receipt upon payment for an item. If a patron locates a lost Quincy item they can receive a refund if returned within 60 days of payment. The patron must bring both the lost item and the receipt to receive reimbursement for the item.

33. The above standards only apply to Quincy items. For items owned by a non-Quincy library, local policies apply and payment is made to that library.

Damaged Materials

Definitions

A damaged item is an item that is not returned in the condition in which it was borrowed. Damage includes, but is not limited to: wet, stained, sticky, sandy, chewed, missing pages, written in (including underlining or highlighting), or missing pieces.

34. It is the responsibility of the patron to return items in the same condition as when the item was originally borrowed or be subject to a replacement fee for the item. The library checks all returned items to make sure that they are not damaged so only materials in good condition are in our circulating collection.

35. The replacement cost of damaged Quincy items is determined by the retail price of the item. Patrons paying for a damaged item may be required to pay this full amount.

36. Any accrued overdue fines for a damaged item will be cancelled upon payment for replacement.

37. The above standards only apply to Quincy items. For items owned by a non-Quincy library, local policies apply and payment is made to that library.

Claims Returned Materials

Definition

A claims returned item is a library material that a patron has borrowed, that is not set to returned in the library database, but that the patron claims was returned to the library.

38. If a library patron is notified that they have not returned a Quincy library item and that patron claims they have returned it, library staff may set the item to Claims Returned. The library staff will then check the shelf for the item and will continue to periodically search for the item. This item will remain on the patron's account with a Claims Returned status until the item is found.
39. A patron is only allowed to have up to three items with a Claims Returned status. Additional items will be marked as Lost and patrons will be billed for the replacement.
40. Items from non-Quincy libraries are subject to the policies of the owning library. Some libraries use the Claims Returned status and others do not. Patrons should contact the owning library to determine their policy.

Claims Never Checked Out Materials

Definition

A claims never had item is a library material that appears on a patron's library account, but that the patron claims was never borrowed.

41. If a library patron is notified that they have not returned a Quincy library item and that patron claims they never borrowed the item, library staff may set the item to Claims Returned. The library staff will then check the shelf for the item and will continue to periodically search for the item. This item will remain on the patron's account with a Claims Returned status until the item is found.
42. A patron is only allowed to have three items with a Claims Returned status. Additional items will be marked as Lost and patrons will be billed for the replacement.
43. Items from non-Quincy libraries are subject to the policies of the owning library. Some libraries will use the Claims Returned status and others will not.
